Council Hires Sanitarian 4-1

Dr. Paul Bryan Named For Eagle Citizen Award

Dr. Paul C. Bryan, superintendent of Albany schools, today was selected to receive Albany Eagle's annual citizen award for outstanding community service during the past year, according to President George Porter.

Dr. Bryan was unanimously selected by Eagle officers for his contributions to the welfare of the community and his active participation in civic affairs.

The award will be presented by Judge Louis J. Hardie at the regular meeting 8 p. m. Monday, March 5 at Cornell School Auditorium.

Porter said the Eagles present the award each year in order to stimulate community activities, and to give deserving recognition to persons contributing to public welfare. All Albany citizens are eligible to receive the award, and membership in the Eagles is not a requisite.

The annual Eagle scholarship awarded to a graduating senior of Albany High School for outstanding leadership will also be presented. Recipient will be Sherman Davis, who will receive the award from Milton Gordon, principal of Cornell School.

The program will include outdoor sports, movies and a short stage show that will appeal to both fathers and sons. All fathers and sons of the community are invited to attend.

Cornell PTA Sets Saturday Whist

The annual spring whist party sponsored by Cornell PTA today was set for 8 p. m. Saturday at Cornell School Auditorium. The event will be the unit's chief fund raising project of the year, according to Mrs. Charles Blume, chairman.

A canned ham will be awarded as door prize, along with individual table prizes. Admission is a 50-cent donation and the door-prize winner does not have to be present to claim the award.

Mrs. Blume is being assisted by members of the executive board.

Auxiliary to Honor Membership Champs

The winning team of the recent membership drive conducted by Albany Eagles Auxiliary will be feted by the losing team with a potluck dinner at the regular business meeting Tuesday, at 8 p. m. at Albany Community Methodist Church.

Kay Hartwig, chairman, will be honored for introducing the most new members.

Mrs. Zahn Threatens Petitions

Albany City Councilmen Monday night hired a new deputy city health officer as sanitarian in a stormy two-hour session, during which Councilwoman Mrs. Kathie Zahn threatened to file petitions to have the sanitary services performed by the Alameda County Health Department.

Named for the post was Leland C. Quillie of Santa Maria, a registered sanitarian. He will begin duties here April 1 at a salary of $325 per month, plus a monthly car allowance of $35.

The Council approved the appointment 4-1 on recommendation of Health Officer Victor Stallone Jr., who was instructed by a majority of the Council last month to find an assistant.

Mrs. Zahn, defeated in her program, then threatened to carry the issue to the voters by circulating initiative petitions.

Stallone, with Mrs. Zahn's support, had recommended a few weeks ago that the city contract with the county for sanitarian services at $50 per month. However, City Atty. Edward R. Plotner ruled the following week that the city could not legally enter a contract with the county because of a clause in the city charter.

Mrs. Zahn challenged Plotner's ruling Monday night when she read a letter from Dr. Ellis D. Sox, chief of the Division of Local Health Service for the State. Dr. Sox's letter quoted an opinion from J. Albert Hutchinson, deputy attorney general, that there appeared to be no unlawful delegation of authority in asking Alameda County to provide the services.

"You have advised us wrong, Mr. City Attorney," she said after reading the letter.

Plotner said that the district attorney had agreed with his opinion "100 per cent" and that the attorney general's office in previous cases had come to the same conclusion he had.

"I think it's highly unethical and undignified for a Councilmember to go over the city attorney's head," said Councilman John C. Longaker. He then suggested that Mrs. Zahn's remarks be stricken from the record.

Mayor Frank C. Graeber suggested that Mrs. Zahn's letters be put in File 5—"the waste basket."

In other business, the City Attorney was instructed to draw up an ordinance creating a citizens' traffic committee on a motion of Councilman Longaker.

Longaker said the commission would be empowered only to study traffic problems and make recommendations to the police and engineering departments. Each councilman would name a member, subject to the approval of the majority of the Council.

The Council voted 4-1 to install

TRUTH ABOUT A BOMB' LECTURE SERIES SET

Part of a series of four lectures on the subject "Learn the Truth about the Atom Bomb" will open March 2 at Cornell School Auditorium under sponsorship of Albany Adult Education Center in co-operation with the Albany Disaster Unit.

The series will be conducted by Russell Ball, chief of the research branch of the Atomic Energy Commission in Berkeley, each day from 7:30 to 9:30 p. m. with the exception of the Friday before Easter.

Ball is a recognized authority on atomic energy and radiological safety and is currently in charge of radiological safety planning for the city of Berkeley.

The general public is invited to attend these forum meetings, and it is probably the only time Albany residents will have the opportunity to learn about radiological safety under the personal instruction of Dr. Ball. As is true of all civil defense courses conducted by the Albany Adult Education Center, no fee is charged for registration.

Radiological safety is considered part of the training for all civil defense wardens and for all persons taking auxiliary police and firemen training. The entire Albany Disaster Council has endorsed the course, and Civil Defense Commander Gerald Browne encourages everyone in any way connected with Albany's civil defense program to make a special effort to attend the Radiological Safety Forum.

Native Daughters to Celebrate 16th Year

Albany Parlor - No. 260, Native Daughters of the Golden West will celebrate its 16th birthday at a dinner meeting Wednesday evening at Ravazza's in Oakland. Loretta Kendall is in charge of arrangements.

A business meeting will be held at the Matinee Hall at 6 p. m. following the dinner. President B. Bagcalupi will preside.

County-Wide Siren Test Today at 11

Albany will take part in a county-wide air raid siren test at 11 a. m. today (Friday), it was announced by Gerald Browne, commander of Albany Civilian Defense.

The "red alert" signal will be sounded for approximately five minutes, followed by the white "all clear" signal at 11:15 a. m.

Used for the first time will be the city's new 10 horse power siren installed this week on top of the fire house. It has a range of four miles and is similar to sirens used in Oakland.

Browne requested that citizens unable to hear the warning signal inside their home to notify him by postal card at 801 San Pablo Ave.

Funeral Rites Held For C.R. Carlson

Funeral services were held Tuesday at Ellis-Olson Mortuary for Clarence Raymond Carlson, 69, retired chief clerk for the Pullman Co. in Richmond, who died Saturday at his home, 936 Evelyn Ave., after a long illness.

The Rev. Robert L. Benefield of Albany Community Church officiated at the 10:30 a. m. service, followed by interment at Sunset View Cemetery.

A native of Baltimore, Md., where he attended Baltimore Law College, Mr. Carlson moved to Albany 28 years ago and was a member of the Community Church.

Survivors are his widow, A. Maude Carlson, and a brother, William of Baltimore.

Northbrae Women Plan Tuesday Luncheon

The Women's Auxiliary of Northbrae Community Church, Los Angeles and The Alameda, will hold its monthly luncheon Tuesday at 12:30 p. m. in the church parlor. Circle B is in charge of arrangements and reservations may be made with Mrs. Steinmetz at LA. 4-0442.

The program will include a color movie and commentary on "Birds and Wild Flowers From Coast to Coast" by Paul E. Covel of the Oakland Park Department.

Covel is park naturalist and will tell about wild life in area parks, showing pictures of Lake Merritt water fowls and a floral tour of the mountain and desert with color slides.

Mrs. Benzie Nisson, president, will preside over the meeting.

Berkeley Team Leads in Area Bowling Bout

As the metropolitan Oakland Men's Bowling Association tournament draws to a close this week at Albany Bowl, several Albany bowlers and teams are holding their own for a place on the winners' list.

First place in the team events at press time was Berkeley Pump Co. team, which bowls in the Albany Bowl 825 scratch league, with a total score of 3148, only 16 pins below the tournament's all-time high record.

Al's Ally is in second place with 3158, followed by Curtis Men's Shop in third place with 3147. The Craig Oil team is fourth with 3116 and Honey Do Nut's trail in fifth place with 3099.

Two high school youngsters are leading in the doubles with a tremendous score of 1295. El Cerrito and Lawrence Deparade, 17, of Albany. Both are products of the Bowl's Saturday morning junior league and make a team that all of the veteran pinsters have been unable to dislodge from the top as they go into the last day of bowling.

Holding down second place in the doubles are G. Merrick and H. Dohrman, both of Albany, with a score of 1270. Frank Lacy, manager of the Bowl, and Joe Villa are in seventh place with 1235.

Over 2600 bowlers have competed in the tournament this year in Albany in the team events, the largest in the history of the association. The second annual Forty Niner Tournament with some $2100 in prizes opens at the Bowl on May 5 and runs through June 10.

Albany Man to Navy

Stanley Jean Roderick, 19, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Henry Roderick, of 1049 Peralta Ave., enlisted in the U. S. Navy recently at the Richmond Recruiting Station, according to Chief Arthur Lacey, recruiter.

Lacey said that the training cen-

SOROPTIMIST SCRIBBLINGS

Albany Soroptimist spent most of the Wednesday luncheon reminiscing about the Valentine Party held last Saturday evening at the home of Mary Loos on Thousand Oaks Blvd.

The benefit was a huge success, and all of the 100 attending agreed that it was one bang-up party.

I have an idea that one of the main reasons it was enjoyed so much was because it was a non-dress-up affair. And people in sports clothing are more inclined to let their hair down than at formal affairs.

After everybody thanked everybody for practically everything, then we all thanked May Ellis Olson, chairman of ways and means, for her tireless efforts in making the party a success. Ruby Kampe, with the fine box on her hand and a gleeful look on her face, started her usual firing. She collected for a variety of things, including eating too much—dancing too many times with Louise Storck's Bill. Bea Williams and Miriam Gilsenan paid the penalty for being one year older.

Program chairman Claire McGraw then introduced her very old friend and bridge enemy, Mrs. Jean Wagner, news editor and motion picture supervisor for Cutter Laboratories. Her talk was illustrated with color movies and had to do with parental fear and intravenous solutions. I'm afraid to go very much further because I'm not even sure I have these words spelled right. However, the talk was very interesting and the pictures are used constantly for educational purposes.—Bea Raymond.

The Marin PTA is sponsoring a canteen course given by the Red Cross at the school craft room each Monday morning. Mrs. Delpha Benstron is instructor.

Solano Merchants Slate Fun-Gram For March 22

Albany Solano Avenue Merchants' Association today announced plans to sponsor its second annual children's Easter Fun-gram here on March 22.

Initial plans are being mapped for a mammoth seven-division parade and Easter egg decorating contest, with a variety of prizes awarded to the winners.

The grand sweepstake prize in the parade will be a $50 U. S. Government Savings Bond, plus additional prizes for each of the division winners. Eggs will be judged according to the best decorated, most original, most comical, etc.

Another stellar attraction for the children's fête will be a drawing for a bicycle. Tickets are given with each purchase made at the member stores.

Installation of new officers highlighted the February meeting of the association held last Wednesday evening at Spenger's.

N. P. "Nick" Reckas succeeded John Smith as president, and his staff of assistants include John Pleich, vice-president; Cecil Wentz, treasurer; Mrs. Kay Fritz, secretary and directors are Bryon Record, Gardner Miller, Al Drozda, Al Beyers and Michael Fahmie.

Named for committee chairmen were Ray Boger, publicity; Wentz, membership, and Pleich, Easter Fun-gram.

REY AND GOMEZ TO DANCE HERE

Frederico Rey and Pilar Gomez, Spanish and Latin-American dancers will be presented 8:15 p. m. Saturday at Albany High School Auditorium as the third and final attraction on the current Albany-El Cerrito Community Concert series.

Although Community Concerts are usually open only to members, the Rey and Gomez program has been designated a bonus concert for new members, according to Mrs. Harold Stone, president.

The 1951-52 membership campaign is in full swing this week, ending on Saturday noon, and new members may attend the performance by presenting their membership receipt stubs.

Critics have praised the artistry of this couple who have mastered the Latin dances. Included in their program are the dazzling Basque, Flamenco and Mexican dances, as well as the classic boleros and malagueñas, and a condensed version of De Falla's dramatic "El Amor Brujo." Each number is in authentic costume.

Mrs. Maurice Schlatter, campaign chairman, said today that season memberships are available from any of the many workers, or from headquarters by calling LA. 5-6858.

Memberships are $6 for adults and $3 for students, including Federal tax. The card entitles the holder to attend all local concerts next year, plus the privilege of attending programs booked by neighboring Community Concert Associations, such as Alameda, Hayward, San Leandro and Alcatraz High School District.

FOOD SALE TOMORROW

The Friendly Circle of Berkeley Park Chapel, Colusa and Oak View, is sponsoring a food sale and luncheon on Saturday, February 24. The food sale will open at 10 a. m., followed with the luncheon from 12 noon to 1 p. m.

"Demon Possession in the Twentieth Century" will be the sermon topic of Dr. Randolph Crump Miller at the 11 a.m. service of morning prayer and ante-communion Sunday at St. Alban's Episcopal Church, Washington and Curtis.

Swimming Meet Scheduled For Elementary Tots

Elementary school children have shown such an interest in swimming that an interschool swimming meet has been scheduled among Marin, Cornell and Codornices schools. The meet is tentatively set for Thursday, March 29, at 2 p.m. at the Albany Pool.

The scheduled events include: (1) Free style, 33 1/3 yards; (2) back stroke, 25 yards; (3) underwater for distance; (4) four man free style relay; (5) three man medley relay; (6) six man special walking relay; and (7) diving.

Both boys and girls will compete in all events.

Screening for this event has brought out such swimming stars as Ernest Chapman, Bill Woolworth, Jim Wong, Ronnie Toulon, Arthur Berenes, Judy Young, Elaine Erickson, Beverly Mower, and Jeanette MacCann from Cornell School; Carl Pelegrin, Roger Gray, Ray Garner, an evening across the front of the ground floor of the City Hall. The awning was recommended by City Engineer Howard B. Carter as a means for controlling heat and light from the outside. Mrs. Zalm dissented on the ground that the money should be used for painting the Council chamber.

The Council also referred to the Police Department and City Engineer a petition of 20 residents of the Hill area to close off Hillside Ave. Residents complained of rocks being tossed from the Hill on houses, and that automobiles raced up and around the dead-end street all hours of the night.

Jim Veever, Bob McNulty, JoAnne Rinehart and Jane Carr from Marin School; and Sam Torrez, Irby Britton, Garland Francis, Joe Turner, Charles Souders, James Lane, and Stanley Clough from Codornices School.

Keen rivalry among the schools should make this swimming meet one to be long remembered.

Avenue Dress Shoppe Opens Gigantic Sale

One of the largest sales of ladies' dresses and suits ever held in El Cerrito today was in progress at the Avenue Dress Shoppe, 405 San Pablo Ave., and will continue until over half of the stock is sold.

The entire stock of dresses, suits, slips and apparel of all kinds has been reduced as much as 50 per cent, according to Mrs. Myra Reese, owner.

Mrs. Reese has been a resident of El Cerrito for over 20 years and is well liked by her many customers whom she has served at the present location for the past two years.

The attractive window display will give the public an idea of the top merchandise offered, and now just in time for Easter. See advertisement on page 3.

GO ABOUT HAIR BEAUTY head first—and with a good, rousing castle shampoo... rinsed out again and again and then again. Brush dry if you've the time... but don't forget to apply cream set, a solid-type brilliantine made by Ogilvie Sisters, family-firm of Fifth Avenue hair specialists who've been practicing hair beauty for ages! (As a refreshing, between-shampoo aid, try the special preparation created by these same experts. Leaves your scalp glowing, your hair utterly clean—and your wave intact!)

Basis of all good looks, say these experts, is clean, shining hair... so regularly cared-for that (like any well-trained pet) it obeys your every whim. Lies down where YOU want it and when! That's important, too, for fall hat fashions aren't the kind to stand any nonsense from wispy, flyaway hair. Unless your head's sleek—forget about chic!

Men's Fashions From the WOMAN'S VIEWPOINT
By LYNNE LAWTON
Women's Fashion Coordinator of the Fashion Bureau

TODAY'S WOMEN can give invaluable hints on grooming to the men in their lives. The country's best dressed women believe that a woman's lack of attention to her man's wardrobe is downright negligence. In the field of entertainment, Mary Healy and Peter Lind Hayes, one of NBC-TV's most charming husband and wife comedy teams—team their talents as well on Peter's wardrobe—and as a result his studied casualness has aided him in career, appearance and comfort.

MARY LOVES WHITE, particularly white dresses or suits to set off her colorful scarfs. She feels that white is just as important in Peter's wardrobe as her own because white coats or slacks look so well with today's colorful sport shirts and other accessories. Here he wears a Palm Beach white sport coat and dark slacks. "Peter learned the importance of an appropriate wardrobe the hard way," says Mary. Several years ago he sneaked down to the exclusive Greenbriar Hotel, for a bit of relaxation and a lot of golf—without benefit of planning. The Duke and Duchess of Windsor were enjoying a stay there at the same time and the day Peter arrived was the night of the formal ball in their honor. Being unprepared, Peter hurried around looking for evening clothes and the golf game unhappily had to be shelved. At the fatal hour, the orchestra leader came to the rescue with the loan of the right clothes and all went well—but his relaxation had to wait until he got home.

Peter may not admit it, but since Mary, like many of us, has become her husband's fashion consultant he doesn't have quite so many style problems.

"What children read has a tremendous influence on their personality," members of the MacGregor PTA were told last Thursday evening by Miss Leone Garvey, supervisor of children's books at the Berkeley Public Library.

Speaking to parents at the monthly meeting, Miss Garvey pointed out that there has been a great upswing of children's interests in fine books since 1920. "The influx of cheap books and comics and the mechanical devices such as movies, radio and television has lured youngsters away from the finer children's literature," she said.

"Children's books today are definitely improving," said Miss Garvey, "but there are still 99 poor ones for one excellent book showing the 'literary flavor'—artfully written, beautifully designed and a pleasure and comfort to read."

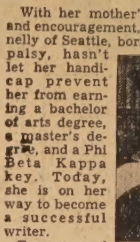

Miss Garvey concluded that it is up to parents to develop a love for good books and to instill it in their children.

During the business session, members voted to sell hot dogs to children and teachers at the school one day a week during the lunch hour. Mrs. William McGimpsey was named chairman.

Mrs. Ollie Foott was appointed representative to the women's auxiliary of the Alameda-Contra Costa County Medical Association for the March 16 meeting. Blood donors were signed up for the mobile blood unit scheduled to visit Albany on March 1.

WHO'S Crippled?

SUCCESS STORY OF THE MONTH

Catherine Donnelly

With her mother's devoted help and encouragement, Catherine Donnelly of Seattle, born with cerebral palsy, hasn't let her handicap prevent her from earning a bachelor of arts degree, a master's degree, and a Phi Beta Kappa key. Today, she is on her way to become a successful writer.

Because of her mother's guiding hand and Catherine's own courage and determination to overcome her handicap, the Washington Society for Crippled Children and Adults presented both Mrs. Donnelly and her daughter with the "Who's Crippled?" citation at a recent Easter Seal luncheon meeting in Seattle. This monthly award is conferred by the National Society for Crippled Children and Adults, the Easter Seal Agency, through its state affiliates to deserving persons like the Donnellys who, in a determination to live a happy, useful life, overcame a severe physical handicap.

Catherine, partially paralyzed in both arms and legs and having a speech impediment, attended grammar and high school in her own home. Teachers visited her two hours a week and outlined her studies, but she was on her own in preparing her lessons. Catherine has a portable typewriter on which she manages to write by punching one key at a time with a pencil. She graduated from high school as a member of the National Honor Society.

When Catherine's father died after she enrolled at the University of Washington, friends discouraged Mrs. Donnelly from carrying out her plans to see Catherine through university. "Ridiculous!" they said. "That girl will never be able to go to college." Those were familiar words to Mrs. Donnelly, but somehow, she didn't seem to hear them.

One October day in 1942, Catherine, accompanied by her mother, attended her first university class. Throughout the four-year course, Mrs. Donnelly, a registered nurse, took down her daughter's lecture notes and helped her go from class to class in a wheelchair.

During those four years there had been nights of staying up until 5 a. m., studying for exams, writing, and tearing up stories. Catherine's major was creative writing and during one semester she sold a one-act play for $25.

After receiving her diploma Magna Cum Laude and elected to Phi Beta Kappa, Catherine went on to earn her master's degree with Mrs. Donnelly by her side.

Catherine earned most of her tuition for her bachelor's degree and all of her tuition for her master's degree by reading and correcting short stories for a creative writing professor at the University of Washington. She also did some ghost writing for radio, and several of her radio plays have been presented over local stations. The American Weekly published her short autobiography, "Thanks, Mother," and Catherine also wrote the first and last chapters of a four-part radio play, "The Legend of the Seafair," broadcast last August over Seattle's four major stations in connection with the city's Seafair celebration.

Catherine likes three square meals a day, and says, "It's hard work sometimes to keep things in running order, but hard work is the best tonic I know to keep me in trim. I am fortunate to have such a wonderful mother."

St. Mary's Dads Stage Annual Sports Night

A six-star variety program shared the spotlight last night when St. Mary's High School Dad's Club presented its annual sports night at the school gymnasium.

Commander James McGuire of Naval Intelligence during World War II, an alumnus of the school, was master of ceremonies introducing the following acts:

The YMI Chanters of El Cerrito; students of "Chuck" Heany, gymnastic coach at University of California, who staged a tumbling exhibition; Ben Olson, magician, who provided a number of tricks proving that the hand is quicker than the eye; a skit by Fosgate, and musical minims by the team of Welch, Cronin and Kelman.

A program highlight was a demonstration of pistol shooting, featuring Mrs. Chief Stanley C. Williams.

Honored guest of the evening was Sgt. Jack Macy, USMC, an alumnus of St. Mary's High, who was recently awarded the Distinguished Service Cross, the Silver Star and the Purple Heart, for courage and bravery beyond the line of duty.

How to make good telephone service even better
Give 'em time to answer
How many times have you answered the telephone and someone hangs up? You know it's not always possible to answer the telephone the moment it rings. So best way to make you get the person you're calling is to give him a minute to answer.

Good way to stretch your telephone dollar
When you make a Long Distance call, you can get the most for your money if, ahead of time, you make notes of things you want to talk about. Then, during your call, jot down the things you want to make sure to remember. With the right planning, you can say as much in a three-minute call as in an exchange of letters. And did you know you can make a three-minute station call, clear across the country, for just $2.00, plus tax, after six in the evening.

When you take the kinks out of your telephone cord, you help protect your own service. For too many twists may break some of the tiny wires in the cord, causing you to hear a "frying" noise. Let the receiver unwind by itself... then take the curls out by remembering not to put a turn in the cord as you handle the receiver. Pacific Telephone

A prayer for our Soldiers

BY MAJOR GENERAL ROY H. PARKER

Chief of Chaplains, United States Army

Almighty God, the Creator and Preserver of all mankind, we commend to Thy special care and keeping those serving in our Army.
Though they be in the midst of dangers, do Thou send Thy guardian angels for their protection. Walk beside them as they go through the valley of the shadow of death.

Knowing that all good things come from Thee, grant them courage and loyalty, through a firm faith in freedom's cause, in the present conflict. When sacrifices are called for, let them be made in the knowledge that Thou art the rewarder of Thy servants. Enable them to live valiantly and serve nobly, in the full realization that no man liveth unto himself. Grant them clear minds, strong bodies, resolute wills, and pure hearts free from hatred and bitterness, renewing them each and every day with strength, like strong men of old, who against enthroned wrong stood with confidence and courage.

Awaken in them a lively faith that will keep them close to Thee.
Enable them to rest their cause upon Thy Word that though the foe be strong, yet knowing the cause as they battle for the right, they can never fail. Fill their hearts with the assurance that with Thee nothing is impossible and that all things work together for good to them that love Thee.

If it be Thy will that injuries be sustained, let them experience the touch of Thy healing hand and do Thou bless the means and the ministries employed for the restoration of their health.

In these difficult times, when the forces of evil are running rampant and many hopes seem about to be crushed, fill their hearts with an abiding sense of Thy reality and the certainty of Thy continual presence. Enable them to look to Thee when loneliness and longing overtake them; fulfill their yearnings by granting them Thine own companionship and fellowship. Enable them to realize the full meaning of Thy promise, "Lo, I am with you always."

Thou who are the Protector and Helper as well as the Giver of victory, grant unto them every good gift of body and soul and unite us with them in faith and love unceasing. Amen.

SEEING'S BELIEVING — It's a case of look and glisten when NBC-TV programs come from the net-work's famous Studio 8-H in New York City these days. The studio — a city block long and three stories high — was recently rebuilt at a cost of $1,000,000 into the world's most modern sight-and-sound broadcasting chamber. Artist's diagram above shows many highlights of the television wonderland. The studio will continue to be used for radio programs, too.

Hadassahs Plan Benefit Event

A guest speaker, a spring fashion show and a program of folk songs have been scheduled for Berkeley Chapter of Hadassah's donor luncheon at the Claremont Hotel on Tuesday, February 27. Proceeds from this major annual event will go toward maintenance of Hadassah's medical services in Israel.

Following the 12:30 p.m. luncheon, Rabbi Saul E. White of Temple Beth Shalom in San Francisco will speak on the question: "Where Do We Go From Here?"

In the fashion show, town and country clothes from Zimman's Albany store will be modeled by members. Accessories worn with the clothes will include hand-wrought jewelry by Robert and Margaret Dhaemers.

As an added attraction there will be a showing of children's wear from the Child's Wardrobe on Solano Ave., modeled by four "small fry" Hadassah daughters.

Natalie Lessinger, well known East Bay folk singer, will accompany herself on the zither as she presents a program of folk songs. Mrs. Albert Zimman of Albany is in charge of the fashion show.

PACIFIC GAS AND ELECTRIC COMPANY

So this is HOUSEKEEPING

To put it politely—I'm disturbed. To put it honestly—I'm peeved! The objects of my anger are those speechmakers and writers who now say the washing machine is a luxury and that, accordingly, its production should be halted in favor of defense production and the continued output of certain "essential" civilian products.

I am perfectly willing to give up the luxuries of peacetime life if it is going to help our nation in these perilous times. But I strongly disagree with anyone who says that washing machines are luxuries. I'm sure that you, as homemakers, will agree with me. You will, if you're like Mrs. Richmond, who lives in our block and is a very busy young mother of three small children. When I asked her what she'd do without a washing machine, she replied:

"I'd just have to throw in the sponge."

Then I began thinking: "Just why is the washing machine so necessary?"

The most important reason is to keep our families and homes clean. Cleanliness is the foundation of health, and good health is a prime requisite for high morale, a vital ingredient for personal and national success either in peace or war.

At least seven out of every 10 American housewives do the family washing at home, where they have no choice but to use a washing machine. That is, unless you can possibly consider a return to great-grandmother's scrubboard as an alternative.

The fact that I have a new washing machine doesn't serve one bit to cool my indignation over statements that production of the "luxury" washing machine may have to be discontinued.

Recently I read that more than 40 per cent of the washing machines now in use are 10 or more years old and in need of early replacement. In still another article I read that each year an average of 1,180,000 washers are becoming useless and are being junked.

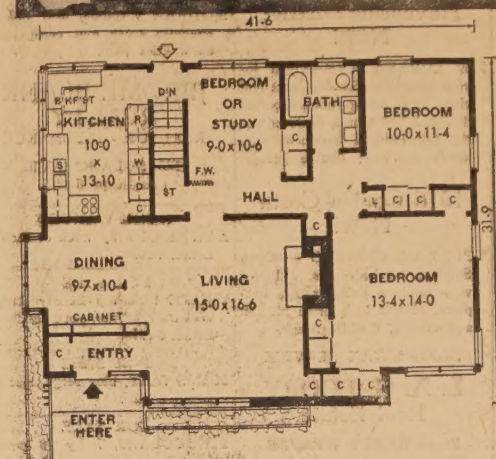

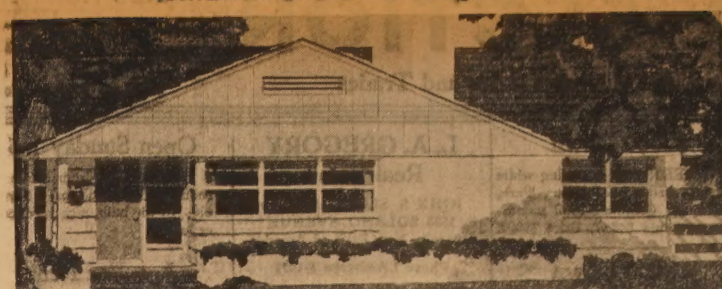

It is important to everyone that these machines be replaced, for the health and cleanliness of the people with whom we associate is as important to us as the health and cleanliness of our own families. It's my own opinion that it's of vital importance, too, to the entire nation. History proves that one of the surest ways to weaken a nation is to first weaken the unity and strength (and that means health) of the family.

I, for one, am going to write my congressman!

Let men laugh, if they will, when you sacrifice desire to duty.—You have time and energy to rejoice in.—Theodore Parker.

Small House with Large Assets

Here's a classic example of the type of house most American families look for. It's Good Housekeeping magazine's "Small House of the Month" for February. Features include: 1,250 feet of floor area; full basement; 12 closets; and fireplace. The exterior is brick veneer, vertical siding, and wood shingles. Note the abundance of windows, twin wash-basins in bathroom, and the folding wall which converts the extra bedroom or study into a second living room.

Adult Center Plans Home Nursing Class

A 12-hour Red Cross home nursing course will be given at Albany High School from February 28 through March 16 under sponsorship of the Adult Education Center, according to R. G. Dennis, principal.

With instructions given by Mrs. Monette Ferguson, a registered nurse, the course will be held from 9:30 to 11:30 each Wednesday and Friday mornings for three weeks. The class will be limited to 15.

In addition to the material covered in the standard Red Cross class in home nursing, attention will also be given to the subject of care of atomic repercussions such as fractures, flash burns, radiation sickness, etc.

There is no registration fee and reservations may be made with the school secretary at LAnd. 5-1757 afternoons, or LAnd. 5-7131 evenings.

A second class covering the same work will begin on March 26.

Cub Pack 7 Given Blue Ribbon Award For Scout Display

Cassell also presented prizes to three cubs who sold the most tickets to the exhibition. They were Bobby Widmar, John Roberts and Freddie Brown.
